

Pinot Beurrot

Les Montées de St Lay

IGP* CÔTES DE LA CHARITÉ

* Indication Géographique Protégée

"Pinot Beurrot" is the Burgundian name for Pinot Gris. The variety comes into its own on the slopes of St Lay, fully expressing its character and potential. Our Pinot Beurrot is a very round and surprisingly aromatic wine. Barrel maturation ensures a well-structured balance. Try it with poultry dishes, foie gras or even lobster.

2018 Vintage

Harvest date: 20 September 2018

Tasting notes: the wine is superbly round, full-bodied and unctuous in the mouth with good length. Aromas of dried fruit, apricot, honey and mead mingle with notes of gingerbread, vanilla, fresh butter and almonds.

Alcohol: 14.5 % Acidity: 3.9

Yield: 55 hl/ha

Production: 2 900 bottles

Soil

Clayey-chalky with ferruginous traces.

Surface

0.40 ha of Pinot Beurrot (or Pinot Gris).

Vinification

The greyish-pink grapes are harvested, hand-selected and pressed. The wine is made in demi-muid barrels of 600l.

Maturing

The wine's complexity and balance develop in the course of its barrel maturation of 9 to 12 months.
